- Time: 10-30am to 3-30pm
- Venue: LFWI Office, Croston, PR26 6TU

This is a wonderful opportunity to discuss your poetry with poet and tutor Alison Chisholm who has written eleven collections, six books on poetry writing including Crafting Poetry, and also the distance learning poetry course for The Writers Bureau. Her poems have won numerous competitions in Britain and America, and been broadcast on TV and radio. The day will involve an analysis of one of Alison’s poems, and then she will identify strategies to help you write your own poem using a mind map based on the theme of ‘Centenary’. In a relaxed atmosphere Alison will help you to develop your writing, discuss problems you may be experiencing and strategies to take you forward. There will be plenty of time to talk about all those things you need to know about writing, revising and completing your work. There will be an opportunity to read out your work and at the end the day you will receive one of Alison’s poetry books (signed) to take home.
